

Global policies and strategies for food safety (Fourth year of study, Seventh Semester)

Credit value (ECTS) 2

Course category
Specialized discipline (compulsory)

Course holder
PhD. Lecturer Eduard BOGHIȚĂ

The objectives of the discipline (course and practicum)

The course aims to assimilate students to international policies and strategies regarding food security, the legislative framework in this field, the knowledge of current international food safety directives and regulations, the use of the HACCP method as part of their own food safety and alignment procedure to quality management and inspection systems that fully comply with the requirements of the European Union.

Contents (syllabus)

Course (Chapters / Subchapters)
1. Defining the concepts of global food security policies and strategies
2. The agri-food system in the equation of economic growth, interests and globalization
3. The justifying arguments and the objectives of the food security policies
4. The actors of global food security policies and strategies
5. Fairness and effectiveness - the dilemma of global food security strategies
6. Pricing policies and strategies - market - producer - consumer
7. The economic and social efficiency of global food security policies and strategies

Practicum
1. Defining the concepts of global food security policies and strategies
2. The agri-food system in the equation of economic growth, interests and globalization
3. The justifying arguments and the objectives of the food security policies
4. The actors of global food security policies and strategies
5. Fairness and effectiveness - the dilemma of global food security strategies
6. Pricing policies and strategies - market - producer - consumer
7. The economic and social efficiency of global food security policies and strategies

References:

1. Davidovici I. Și colab., 2002 – Economia creșterii agroalimentare. Editura „Expert” București.
2. Ștefan G., 2006 – Economie agrară. Editura „Junimea” Iași
3. Ștefan G., 2011 – Economia și filiera produselor agroalimentare. Editura „ALFA” IAȘI.
4. <http://www.anpcnet.ro/ro/>
5. <http://www.ansv.ro/>

Evaluation

Forms of evaluation	Methods of evaluation	Percentage of final grade
Exam	Written and oral evaluation	70%
Appreciation of the activity during the semester	Oral evaluation during the semester, verification tests, laboratory colloquium.	30%

Contact

PhD.Lecturer Eduard BOGHITA

Faculty of Agriculture – UASMV Iasi

Aleea Mihail Sadoveanu nr. 3, Iasi, 700490, Romania

telephone: 0040 232 407518

E-mail: ediboghita@uaiasi.ro