

SPECIALTY PRACTICE (Master, year I, semester I, II MDR)

Nr. transferable credits 4

Discipline status

Discipline (compulsory)

Discipline holder

Prof. PhD George UNGUREANU

Objectives-competencies

- Identifying the particularities of the rural space and the particular and concrete forms of the laws that govern the economic phenomena and mechanisms in agriculture, respectively researches and explains the content of the agrarian relations and of the agricultural production process in the context of sustainable rural development;
- Realization of the economic analysis plan at regional and rural level (purpose, objectives, collection of economic information, data processing and interpretation, conclusions and way forward);
- Substantiation of the decision by analyzing the economic situation in rural areas; internal potential analysis; strategy analysis; analysis of results and economic well-being.
- Description of basic concepts, theories, models and methods dedicated to defining, designing and choosing the tools of economic analysis at macro, regional and rural level;
- Monitoring the factors and final causes that underlie the non-performance / economic performance at regional and rural level;
- Creating teams designed to identify solutions to improve performance and competitiveness.
- Realization of the economic analysis plan (purpose, objectives, collection of economic information, data processing and interpretation, conclusions and the way to follow);
- Substantiation of the decision by analyzing the economic situation in rural areas; internal potential analysis; strategy analysis; analysis of results and economic well-being.

Minimum performance standards for competency assessment

- Acquiring and understanding the specific theoretical basis of economic analysis, skills in quantifying and interpreting economic and financial indicators in order to identify the final causes of non-performance / performance at regional and rural level.
- Assessing the performance, competitiveness, risk and limits of economic growth at the macroeconomic level by using the following types of analysis: analysis of the political and legal environment; analysis of the rural economic environment; social environment analysis; welfare analysis; analysis of regional and rural results and performances.

Final evaluating:

No.		Number of points	%
1	Attendance at specialized practice	1,5	15,0
2	Evaluation along the way	1,0	10,0
3	Practice tutor's note	1,5	15,0
4	Note from the supervising teacher	6,0	60,0
	Final grade	10,0	100,0

Supervising teacher

Prof. dr. George UNGUREANU
Faculty of Agriculture - IULS
Aleea Mihail Sadoveanu no. 3, Iasi, 700490, Romania
phone: 0040 232 407516, fax: 0040 232 219175
E-mail: unurgeo@uaiasi.ro